

OCTOBER EVENTS

2 FRI

2:30-4 P.M.

Prince Frederick Hall,
Room 1105

Emergent Intersections of Disability and the Digital

A roundtable during the conference "Transformative Digital Humanities" features M.W. Bychowski, Angel Love Miles, Izetta Mobley, and Jarah Moesch and is moderated by Beth Haller.

5 MON

6-9 P.M.

Jimenez Hall,
Room 0105

National Day Without Stigma

During this panel, students share their mental health stories with the audience. A question-and-answer period and discussion follow.

PANEL DISCUSSION

6 TUE

6 P.M.

Van Munching Hall,
Frank Auditorium
Room 1524

Alive Inside

Join us for this powerful and moving 2014 Sundance Film Festival award winner. View the trailer that went viral at aliveinside.us.

13 TUE

12:30-1 P.M.

webmeeting.umd.edu/ltwebinars

Best Practices for Making Course Content Accessible

Word files, PowerPoints, PDFs. Learn how to make this content accessible to all students in an ELMS course.

WEBINAR

14 WED

2:30-3:30 P.M.

McKeldin Library,
Special Events
Room 6137

Campus Partnerships in Disability Services

Discover partnering activities between the University Libraries and Disability Support Service for students, faculty, staff and visitors with disabilities.

15/16 THU FRI

Multiple events,
times and locations.

2015 Conference on Inclusion and Diversity in Library and Information Science

Take part in this conference on issues of inclusion, information, and technology and how they relate to diversity in all its forms. See ipac.umd.edu/cidlis-2015 for details.

20 TUE

3-5 P.M.

Patuxent Building,
Room 0120

Campus 3-Year IT-Accessibility Plan

Get an overview of and discuss the plan's strategic areas: Web accessibility, course (re)design, multimedia development, e-learning collaborative tools, and assistive technology tools. RSVP to kbracagl@umd.edu by Oct. 16.

22 THU

2:30-4 P.M.

McKeldin Library,
Special Events
Room 6137

Radical Access, Disability Justice, and Awkward Ableism

A workshop on what ableism is, what disability justice is, and what access for people with disabilities would mean.

23 FRI

NOON-2 P.M.

SPH Deans Conference
Room, Room 2242h

TerpAccess Disability Awareness and Advocacy Training

Signup is required. Email anapella@umd.edu. This workshop is supported by a Maryland Moving Forward grant.

26 MON

2:30-4 P.M.

McKeldin Library, 6103

ELMS Course Accessibility Boot Camp

Work with DIT Learning Technology Services instructional designers to check your course space for accessibility roadblocks and fix them.

27 TUE

5:30-8 P.M.

McKeldin Library,
Special Events
Room 6137

Bathroom Justice

Bathrooms are where race, gender, sexuality, and ability intersect. Everyone should be "Free 2 Pee."

29 THU

10-11:35 A.M.

Susquehanna Hall,
Room 1111

Disabilities Studies Roundtable

Join us in the continued discussion of establishing a multidisciplinary disability studies minor. This event is supported by a Maryland Moving Forward grant.

NOVEMBER EVENT

5 THU

1-4 P.M.

McKeldin Library,
Special Events
Room 6137

Disabilities and Reasonable Accommodations: The Law, Etiquette, and Ethics

This workshop is presented by lawyers and educators from the Maryland Commission on Civil Rights.

Co-sponsored by:

The President's Commission on Disability Issues and the following campus organizations: Active Minds, Center for Literary and Comparative Studies, College of Education, College of Information Studies, Disability Support Service, Kinesiology Student Organization, Office of Diversity and Inclusion, UMD Women's Technology Institute, University Health Center, University Libraries.

For sign language interpretation, please contact Cassy Lytle, DSS Deaf and Hard of Hearing Unit coordinator, at 301.314.7209 or dhhs@umd.edu at least two weeks prior to listed events.

For more information about any of the listed events, please contact Dan Newsome, DSS ATLab Coordinator: 301.314.7958 or wdn@umd.edu

Disability Awareness Month

2015